Praying for the Holy Souls in November

During the month of November, mass intentions will not be accepted for specific dates. Instead, parishioners are encouraged to make an offering and submit the names of their deceased loved ones in envelopes available in the vestibule. All masses, with the exception of the weekly missa pro populo, will be offered for the names submitted. Please place your envelopes and offering in the regular collection. PLEASE PRINT LEGIBLY – Thank you.

Next Sunday, October 27, Bishop Bergie will celebrate the 11 a.m. Mass during which he will dedicate the church and altar. Everyone is encouraged to attend this anniversary Mass and beautiful ceremony. A reception will follow in the church hall. Baked goods will gratefully be accepted on Saturday, October 26 9 a.m. – noon, before either the 5 p.m. or 11 a.m. Masses.

Today is World Mission Sunday. Envelopes for this annual collection are found in the vestibule. Together with the Archdiocese of St. Boniface and the Diocese of Hamilton, our diocese helps to support the clergy and people of the Diocese of Churchill-Hudson Bay. This is a huge diocese that covers approximately 2,300,000 square kilometres. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Prizes for an anniversary raffle to be drawn at the Sacred Heart luncheon on November 17 are being gratefully accepted. If you are able to help by donating a prize or soliciting them, please contact Julia Mein at 905-295-4293.

Sacred Heart Anniversary Mugs are now on sale for $10 each.
